Average water consumption per person per day in Hong Kong (2015-16)

The average water consumption per person per day in Hong Kong is about 223.6 litres.

Source: Hong Kong Water Supplies Department | © 2019 World Vision Hong Kong

World Vision Hong Kong, incorporated with limited liability, is a Christian humanitarian organisation working to create lasting change in the lives of children, families and communities living in poverty.